Order Denying Motion for Compassionate Release Without Prejudice

Defendant filed a pro se motion that the Court construed as a motion for compassionate release under the First Step Act of 2018. Dkt. 951. The Court appointed counsel to represent Defendant and stayed the case. Dkts. 952, 956. Counsel appeared on Defendant's behalf, dkt. 955, but then withdrew, dkts. 967, 968.

After counsel withdrew, the Court ordered Defendant to supplement his motion for compassionate release with any information or argument that might inform the Court's discretion to grant or deny his motion for compassionate release on or before July 12, 2021. Dkt. 968. The Court warned Defendant that his motion for compassionate release would be deemed abandoned and denied without prejudice if he did not file a supplement as required. Id. The Court mailed its Order to Defendant on May 26, 2021.

As of the writing of this Order, Defendant has not supplemented his motion for compassionate release as required, and the deadline for doing so has passed. Accordingly, the Court considers Defendant's motion for compassionate release abandoned, and the motion, dkt.

[951], is denied without prejudice. Nothing in this Order, however, prohibits Defendant from filing a new motion for compassionate release.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
